

NEW NATIONAL PARK

All Arrangements Complete For Its Dedication.

AN EVENT WITHOUT A PARALLEL

Great Throngs of Veterans Who Fought Against Each Other Are Crowding Into Chattanooga to Take Equal Parts in the Event—How the Battlefields Have Been and Will Be Marked.

CHATTANOOGA, Sept. 16.—Under the guiding hand of the Secretary of war, acting under the authority of congress, Chattanooga and the notable battlefields surrounding it have been prepared for a national event without parallel. Great throngs of veterans, who fought against each other, are crowding into the city to take equal part, under national enactment in the dedication of fields, which their prowess made memorable, as a national military park, wherein the movements and achievements of each side have received impartial attention.

As provided in the act of congress Secretary Lamont has invited the attendance of the executive department of the government, the members of the supreme court, congress and its presiding officers, the lieutenant general of the army and the admiral of the navy, the governors of all the states with their staffs and the veterans of the contending armies. All are to be prominently represented. Nearly every surviving general of the two armies has sent notice of his intention to attend. The governors of every state which had troops in the action here responded favorably to the secretary's invitation. In a few cases the governors themselves will be prevented from attending, but their states will be officially represented.

A joint committee of 20 senators and 30 members of the house will represent congress. The members of 26 state commissions who have been at work with the national commission in locating lines of battle for the troops of their respective states will attend. The Societies of the Army of the Cumberland, of the Army of the Tennessee, the Grand Army of the Republic and the Association of Confederate veterans will be present in unusual numbers. This official concourse is to be increased by a gathering of an army of visitors already known to be so great that it will tax the capacity of the railroads centering here and the city to their utmost capacity.

The secretary of war, and the national commission acting under his direction, have made every possible arrangement which the expenditure authorized by congress would allow to insure the comfort of visitors; and through large and influential citizen committees the city of Chattanooga has given itself with energy and enthusiasm to the work of assisting the secretary of war. Lieutenant General Schofield has kindly contributed every assistance which could be given from the headquarters of the army and the movements of regular troops from Fort Sheridan, Fort Hiney, Fort Thomas, Columbus barracks and Pensacola has presented an instance of rapid concentration of special interest. The telegraphic notices from Washington to the national commission that distant battalions, batteries and squadrons had been ordered to move were scarcely received before dispatches arrived at Park headquarters from each post that troops were starting.

The park which is to be dedicated is of unusual dimensions. It extends with its approaches, from Sherman Heights in Tennessee, six miles north of Chattanooga, to Glass Mill in Georgia, a distance of 22 miles. The broad boulevard between these two points is owned in fee simple by the government as part of the park, and full jurisdiction over this, over the 15 square miles of the Chickamauga field, and over many miles besides of other approaches has been ceded to the government by the states of Tennessee and Georgia. This central drive runs for eight miles along Bragg's line of battle on the crest of Missionary Ridge. It passes along the fronts of Sherman's army, Thomas' Army of the Cumberland and the army under Hooker. It overlooks all the battlefields about Chattanooga, including Lookout Mountain, and runs for 12 miles through the center of the fighting ground of the three days' battle of Chickamauga.

Of the territory over which jurisdiction has been ceded to the United States for park purposes, 10 square miles have been already purchased in a single block on the Chickamauga field. The entire crest about Bragg's headquarters on Missionary Ridge; Orchard Knob, the headquarters of Grant, Thomas and Granger during the battle of Chattanooga, a tract eight acres in extent; 50 acres at the north end of Missionary Ridge, being the ground assaulted by General Sherman and defended by Cleburne, and a tract of five acres on another portion of the ridge marking the left of the assault of the Army of Cumberland, form portions of the park. Congress also authorized the addition to the park of Hookers and Walthall's battle ground on Lookout. The government already owns the roads to and over Lookout mountain through Hooker's field, to Wauhatchie on Longstreet's field.

The park and its approaches therefore embraces or overlooks the fields of five days of general battle between great armies and three days of minor engagements, namely: Chickamauga, Orchard Knob, Lookout Mountain and Missionary Ridge; Brown's Ferry and Wauhatchie.

The plan of the park is to restore the fields as nearly as possible to their condition at the time of the battle, to close all new roads and reopen and improve those used in the battles, and over which the armies moved to and from the fields. The lines of the battle have been all ascertained and a vast amount of work towards permanently marking them has been done. This is established by historical and guide tablets which point the way to and explain the movements upon every portion of the lines. These tablets show the organization of armies, corps, divisions and brigades, with the names of their respective commanders, and their staffs on the field, and the commanders of all regiments and batteries. Full historical text on each tablet sets forth the details of movement at each point.

There is no distinction in the preparation of these tablets between Union and Confederate forces, nor in any other department of the work of establishing the park is there any difference. The design is to mark with historical accuracy the identical ground of engagements, which occurred on these fields and thus present an object lesson in actual war such as no other nation has attempted. Besides the historical tablets which are prepared by the government the states are erecting monuments to mark the position of their troops. Already nearly a half million dollars have been appropriated by states which had troops here, and all of the states but two of the 29, which were represented in the battles, have commissioners at work locating positions for monuments. There are nearly a hundred miles of roads opened and 52 have been improved in the most substantial manner and all run through most interesting military positions.

Over 400 guns of the batteries used on these fields have been obtained from the arsenals, and 160 have already been mounted upon iron gun carriages, which are of the pattern of the carriages of war, and set up to mark the exact position of the batteries of each side in the battle. Eventually the whole 400 guns will be in position. Visitors find this one of the most imposing features of the restoration, as they come upon batteries of real guns at every prominent point on the lines. Steel observation towers rising above the forests at various commanding positions afford views of the entire theater of battle.

The Chickamauga field is already thickly dotted with state monuments and the government tablets, and while not over half of the number of either which are to be erected have yet been provided, the lines of three days' engagement are readily followed. Ohio, which led, has 55 monuments and 33 granite markers for minor positions in place. Minnesota has five monuments to her two organizations, and two of these are the most costly of any yet erected. Massachusetts has a fine granite and bronze monument on Orchard Knob in Chattanooga. Indiana has 37 monuments in course of erection; Illinois, 33; Wisconsin, 10; Michigan, 11; Missouri, 1 Confederate and 4 Union, and all these states have numerous markers. Kansas has three excellent monuments to her one regiment. Pennsylvania is working energetically under large appropriations, and Tennessee is preparing contracts for four large memorial monuments, one of which is to be federal soldiers. New York is preparing to erect costly and imposing memorials on the Chattanooga fields.

All of the monuments thus far erected, except those of Indiana, are of granite and bronze. Those of that state are of Bedford limestone.

The park project and the main details of its comprehensive plan were the conception of General H. V. Boynton, now the historian of the national commission. His public suggestion to make Chickamauga a national park was taken up by the society of the Army of the Cumberland, and his first plan was to accomplish this through a joint memorial association of Union and Confederate veterans with the idea of securing state assistance. A memorial association was organized and chartered, but before it began operations he perfected a plan for a national commission acting under the supervision of the secretary of war. He wrote a bill, which is the present law, placed it in the hands of General Grosvenor of Ohio who introduced it in the house of representatives.

Many members of the house and senate took an immediate and strong interest in the measure, notably 30 of these who served in one or the other armies about Chattanooga. Before it was called up universal support had been secured for it, and it passed both houses by unanimous consent. It provided for the purchase of 7,600 acres of the Chickamauga field, and for the equal participation of both sides in the marking of the lines and the erection of monuments. All subsequent appropriations, now aggregating $750,000, have also passed without opposition.

Secretary Proctor took great interest in the matter and appointed a commission under which the park is being established. Senator Elikins gave the project energetic support, and through the last two years, while the immense work has been taking final shape, Secretary Lamont has rendered constant and most energetic assistance.

The national commission consists of General J. S. Fullerton, chairman; General A. P. Stewart, representing the Confederate side; Major Frank G. Smith, Second Artillery, Secretary; and General H. V. Boynton, historian. General Fullerton, by order of the secretary of war, has charge of all arrangements for the dedication.

The official dedication under the auspices of congress and the secretary of war will occupy the 19th and 20th instants, but exercises of a general character, which will be attended by most of the officials, which are to arrive, will occupy the whole day of the 18th and the evenings of the 18th, 19th and 20th.

The dedication of state monuments will occur mainly on the 18th. Michigan, her governor presiding, will lead off at Snodgrass Hill at 9 a. m. Ohio with an elaborate program will follow at noon at the same place and Minnesota at 2 o'clock. These exercises will all take place at the platform and amphitheater erected for the national dedication exercises at the foot of Snodgrass Hill, the famous horseshoe ridge of General Thomas' battle.

The dedication of Illinois monuments, the governor presiding, will take place at Lytle Hill, the afternoon of the 18th. Indiana will be upon the field in great force for the dedication of her monuments, the quartermaster of the state having sent 600 tents to accommodate the governor's party and the veterans who are to attend from that state. The Missouri dedication will occur on the 20th at Bragg's headquarters on Missionary Ridge. The hours for Wisconsin and Pennsylvania depend upon the closing work on their monuments.

The night of the 18th in the tent provided for dedication purposes at Chattanooga, the Army of the Cumberland will hold its reunion. The tent seats 8,000 and the platform 2,000 more. Upon the platform will be seated the leading officials both national and state in attendance at Chattanooga, and the leading veterans of both armies, and the Society of the Army of the Tennessee in a body. General C. F. Manderson will be the orator, and there will be brief speeches from Lieutenant General Schofield, General Dodge, president of the Society of the Army of Tennessee, General Daniel Butterfield, General Horace Porter, General J. H. Wilson, Colonel Fred Grant and Father Sherman.

At noon of the 19th, the Chickamauga field will be dedicated, the vice president of the United States presiding upon the invitation of Secretary Lamont. The orators will be General John M. Palmer and General John B. Gordon, both of the United States senate.

The night of the 19th, in the tent at Chattanooga, the veterans of Sherman's and Bragg's armies will hold public exercises, General Granville M. Dodge, president of the Society of the Army of the Tennessee, presiding. The chief speeches will be by General O. O. Howard, General Joseph Wheeler of Alabama and General Willard Warner of Chattanooga.

During the forenoon of the 20th there will be a parade and a review, in which all organized military bodies and the governors of states will take part. At noon the dedication of the Chattanooga fields will take place in the tent, the speakers being General Charles H. Grover, of the house of representatives, and General William B. Bate of the senate.

The night of the 20th the exercises in the tent will be conducted by the veterans of Hooker's and Longstreet's forces, General E. E. Walthall of the United States senate, presiding. Among the speakers for this occasion are Colonel Lewis R. Stogman of the New York commission, Governor W. C. Oates of Alabama, General J. H. Williamson of Iowa and General Frank C. Armstrong of Washington.

WAR AGAINST MORMONS.

An Indiana Neighborhood Aroused Over Secret Meetings of Latter Day Saints.

HOLTON, Ind., Sept. 16.—The Mormons are again causing trouble in the neighborhood of Pleasant Ridge schoolhouse. They have organized themselves into a determined body and are holding secret meetings. Some five years ago this same band raised a disturbance near New Marion, this state, but were suppressed by the citizens.

They have remained quiet since then, however, until one week ago, when they were noticed in a schoolhouse by a farmer. Not knowing anything in regard to their meeting, he crept up to a window unobserved and watched them. He reported this to the people of the surrounding country, and a meeting was called Wednesday afternoon. The organization is growing among the Mormons, and they are very reticent, refusing to answer any questions and remaining close to their respective homes until after nightfall. The neighborhood is aroused and trouble is expected.

It appears the trouble originated over church affairs, and that the Mormons are determined to stand by their doctrine regardless of their neighbors, who vow that they shall not hold any secret meetings, and must not meet as a body in that section of the country. The Mormons are a very strong body, numbering several hundred. It was reported by good authority that they have regular officers, and a set of rules which each member must obey.

TOO STUBBORN TO LIVE.

John Reed, an Old Soldier, Refused to Eat and Died of Starvation.

BELLEFONTAINE, O., Sept. 16.—John Reed, an old soldier living in Lakeview, a small place near here, died a horrible death at noon Friday. He would positively take nothing whatever to eat and died from his downright stubbornness. He said: "I don't want to live." Before his death he had wasted away until he was skin and bone.

Reed's funeral took place yesterday at 3 o'clock. He had grown so contrary and stubborn that nothing could be done to alleviate his suffering, which grew to be terrible towards the last. He said that he had not a friend left on earth and life was not worth living. The residents in the vicinity of the home feel saddened at the manner of the old man's death.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—An explosion occurred Saturday at the Atlas smokeless powder works at Bay Chester, seriously injuring Frank Widner, 23 years old; Mary Searing, 14 years old; Masop E. Leonard. The Searing girl can not live. The explosion was caused by overheated machinery.

MORA CLAIM PAID.

End of a National Dispute of Twenty-Six Years' Standing.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—An international dispute of 26 years' standing was ended at noon Saturday when Senor De Lome, the Spanish minister, delivered to Mr. Adce, acting secretary of state, a draft to the equivalent of $1,449,000 drawn on the Spanish financial agent in London in settlement of the Mora claim. The claim is for damage done to Mora's property in Cuba during one of the numerous revolutions there. Lawyers' fees have swallowed up the greater part of the amount, but the claimant, it is said, will get $600,000 for himself.

Having settled the international feature of the case, the state department is now likely to encounter some difficulty at home in disbursing the money. Much litigation is threatened, as was evidenced by the taking out of an injunction by one of the assignees last Friday to restrain the state department from paying over all of the money to the claimant, Mora.

During the years of the pendency of this great claim Mora has been obliged to make assignments of part of it, the larger items being on account of legal expenses.

To insure a proper distribution, the department will give official notice by the usual channels, so that proper claims may be presented, and as this will necessarily consume some time, there will be no haste in closing up the claim.

ASHES FELL FROM THE SKY.

Shower of Charred Remnants of Pine Leaves That Fell at Clifton, O.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Sept. 16.—Residents of Clifton report a phenomenal shower of ashes which fell from the sky in the morning between 8 and 9 o'clock. The ashes fell as thick as snowflakes, and, to add to the interesting nature of the phenomenon, among the ashes were the remnants of leaves entirely burned, but yet of sufficient consistency to hold together.

As these had evidently been pine leaves, there remains little doubt in the minds of those who observed the strange sight that the shower of ashes had been carried from the Wisconsin piney fires, which have been raging for some time past.

The phenomenal fall of ashes and partially burned leaves in Clifton and vicinity is the talk of the neighborhood. Nearly every one in the locality is reading up to find accounts of similar occurrences. Many of the residents have gathered some of the remnants of the queer shower and will preserve them.

Of course, they are highly treasured. Another reason to lead the people to believe that the shower came from Wisconsin somewhere is that the wind was from that direction. It is likely that accounts of the phenomenon will find their way into the scientific periodicals. History is replete with instances where ashes have, during a volcanic eruption, been carried hundreds of miles.

LAST LINK FORGED.

Witness Will Prove That Durant Had Miss Lamont's Rings After Her Murder.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 16.—A few weeks ago Captain of Detectives Leos said that if a witness could be found who would supply the necessary proof that any or all of Blanche Lamont's rings were in the possession of Theodore Durant before they were returned to Mrs. Noble in so mysterious a manner, the last and strongest link in the chain of evidence against the young medical student would have been forged.

This witness has been found. He is W. J. Phillips, a business man, a man of unquestionable integrity, and he came forward with his statement at this late date because he felt it to be his duty to make known the facts within his knowledge before it is too late for them to have any effect in the trial now in progress. As far as his knowledge goes, he is positive as to his facts.

His testimony will be corroborative of that of Adolph Oppenheimer, the pawnbroker, who testified at the preliminary hearing that Durant entered his place of business a few days after the murder of Blanche Lamont and tried to pawn one of her rings. Phillips says he was near the pawnshop at the time and saw Durant enter the place.

The police have at last identified Durant's unknown girl admirer, who attends court every day, and who formerly sent him flowers. She is Rosalind Holland, the daughter of well-to-do people in Oakland. She knew Durant before the murder and she believes him innocent. It was suggested that perhaps the funds for Durant's defense were supplied by the young woman, but it is doubtful if she could control the amount sufficient for this purpose.

END OF THE WORLD.

Carey (O.) Divine Prophecies Destruction of the Earth.

CAREY, O., Sept. 16.—In his farewell sermon Rev. Mr. Sago, a prominent divine of the United Brethren church, Vanlue, O., electrified his congregation by assuring them the time is near when all men must be called before the court on high, where there is no buying of juries or continuance of trial. He prophesied the end of the world.

His calculation is based on the many troubles, calamities and crimes which took place in the last few years foretold by the Scripture in prophecies concerning the time when the moon would be turned to blood and all home circles destroyed in a fiery wreck of the earth.

BRUSSELS, Sept. 16.—By the collapse of a balloon at Charleroi an aeronaut named Toilet and three passengers were mangled beyond recognition.

CHINA ACTS DEFIANT

Missionary Murderers to Go Unpunished.

THE COMMISSION WORK STOPPED.

Without the Presence of a Foreign Fleet of War Vessels No Punishment For the Massacre Is Probable—The Vegetarians Preparing For Another Massacre of Christians.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—A World cable from Foo-Chow, China, says: The Chinese refuse to execute a single murderer implicated in the massacre of missionaries unless they are assured that with the execution of the men accused all other demands shall cease.

The work of the British and American joint commission is therefore stopped.

Without the presence of a foreign fleet no punishment for the massacre is probable.

The Vegetarians are relying on official sympathy to begin again seizing and torturing Christians.

Only Life For Life.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 16.—The Chinese officials at Kn-Cheng are proving obstinate over the results in the inquiries of the outrages upon missionaries, and are unwilling to sentence the guilty. They offer one life for each European who was killed, and no more.

STORM AT CHICAGO.

Probably Two Persons Drowned While Others Had Narrow Escapes.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—With little or no warning a terrific wind and rainstorm struck this city at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon and for more than an hour numerous small crafts that had been caught some distance in the lake were in danger of capsizing. The yacht "Jag," with a party on board, was caught off Hyde Park, and as darkness settled over the lake soon afterward, it was reported that she had been lost with all on board. At a late hour, however, the yacht ran in at South Chicago, having run before the wind to that point under bare poles.

Shortly before 7 o'clock the Evaston lifesaving station crew were notified that two men in a small boat which appeared to be unmanageable had been sighted off the Evanston shore. The crew manned the surf boat and went out, but when they arrived at the point where the boat had been last seen, it had disappeared. It is the belief of the lifesavers that the two occupants of the boat lost their lives, as it was said that no small boat, and especially one in an unmanageable condition, could live in the sea that was running.

Rain came down in torrents for more than an hour, and the storm was accompanied by a brilliant electrical display. Four or five houses were struck by lightning, but no fatalities were reported. At South Chicago one woman was rendered unconscious, but was restored after a short time.

WALLER'S CAUSE NOT LOST.

State Department at Washington Discredits Parisian News.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—State department officials know nothing of the information respecting the Waller case, professed to have been obtained by the Siecle of Paris, and can not understand the basis for the claim that Waller's cause "has been irretrievably lost."

They attach no importance to the alleged news. The record and proceedings of the courtmartial are not due in France until about the end of the month, according to statements made by the French ministry for foreign affairs to Ambassador Eustis, and if it be true that they are in Paris it is said that the French ministry will find some embarrassment in explaining its statement given out that they would not be for more than a week yet, the steamer supposed to be bearing them having reached Aden, on the Red sea, Sept. 12.

Adjudged Insane.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 16.—Mrs. Elizabeth Williams, who butchered her two children at the Park hotel last April, was adjudged insane Saturday and will be placed in the Columbus state hospital. The certificate upon which the finding was made was signed by Superintendent A. B. Richardson of the Columbus state hospital, Superintendent H. A. Tobey of the Toledo state hospital and Dr. Orpheus Everts of College Hill sanitarium, Cincinnati.

Slabbed to the Heart.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Sept. 16.—Harrison Ware, colored, killed his stepfather, Albert Williamson, at the Laprade place, five miles from town, about 12 o'clock Friday night, after which he came to town and surrendered himself to the authorities. Williamson was severely beating his wife, who was Ware's invalid mother. Ware came up and drove a knife blade into Williamson's heart.

Freight Train Wrecked.

WHEELING, Sept. 16.—Eastbound, fast freight No. 86 on the Baltimore and Ohio, due at Mannington, Marion county, W. Va., at 1:30 Sunday, jumped the track at the little station of Matz, just west of Mannington, making the worst wreck seen on the fourth division of the road in many years. Three tramps known to have been on the train are believed to be under the wreck.

BRADLEY'S CAKE IS DOUGH.
The St. Louis Republic makes the following pointed comment upon W. O. Bradley's cowardly action in violating his agreement to hold twelve joint debates with Hardin:

"When Abraham Lincoln went before the people of Southern Illinois in 1858 he would never have got a start toward a Presidential nomination if he had been like Bradley of Kentucky."

"If John P. Hale had been such a counterfeiter when he first went to the Senate, he would never have put courage into the just-forming Republican party. If old Josh Giddings had been afraid of a little noise, he would never have got into Congress."

"If James Birney had been too full of nerves to look dissentient Kentuckians in the face, no book would ever have been written about him."

"We mention these pioneer Republicans by way of contrast with Bradley."

"Unseemly behavior is not excused by any respectable Kentucky Democrats. Mr. Bradley is the man who has encouraged it by his retreat before it. He is about the first Kentuckian of any party to give nourishment to the notion that a man can be driven out of a campaign by a gang of hooters."

"A politician is a combatant. He takes chances of the disagreeable with the agreeable. He ought to face an audience composed wholly of hooters with unshaken nerves and undisturbed temper. In England he would frequently be compelled to meet not only howls but missiles. Gladstone almost lost an eye and did not fly the pit. Rider Haggard the other day was driven to seek shelter and stuck to his game. It is a pity if Americans can not exhibit as much pluck."

"Here the orator always has the advantage over the hoodlums. The audience will side with him, if he sets a good example of nerve and will wait a few minutes. The hoodlum never has many friends in an American gathering."

"Bradley got the rattles and nobody is fit for politics who is prone to that complaint. He has turned the best Republican chance of a generation into damp and hopeless dough."

The Cincinnati Tribune now says the political situation in Kentucky is not at all clear. A few weeks ago the Tribune imagined the Republicans almost had a walkover. But that was before Bradley's slunk at Eminence.

The campaign poetry credited to the Jessamine Journal last week should have been credited to the Covington Commonwealth. This was one of the good things we overlooked in the Commonwealth. The Journal published it without any credit, and that explains how the BULLETIN came to credit it to the Journal.

Mr. JAMES H. SALLIE did not appoint himself a member of a recent-named committee, as printed in another paper. Mr. Sallie isn't that kind of a man.—Public Ledger.

By the expression "another paper," the Ledger of course means the BULLETIN, as the BULLETIN is the only other paper that mentioned the appointment of the committee referred to. Here is what the BULLETIN said:

It was decided to tender Grand Master Thomas a reception at Masonic Temple some evening within the next week or ten days, the time to be announced hereafter, and a committee consisting of three from each of the various Masonic bodies was appointed to make all arrangements.

The editor of the Ledger must be cross-eyed. There is no intimation in the above that Mr. Sallie appointed himself a member of the committee. The BULLETIN didn't say who appointed the committees.

WORTHY OF IMITATION

Is the Life of This Thrifty Colored Man Who Started Without a Dollar.

Here is what industry can accomplish, says the Fairview Review. David Tutt, colored, when he was freed during the war started in life in 1865 without a dollar. Now he owns 477 acres of good land in the Tabernacle neighborhood and raises every year from twenty-five to thirty hogsheads of tobacco. This year he has in cultivation between forty-five and fifty acres, and about seventy acres of corn. He works from ten to twelve hands regularly.

He is a consistent member of the colored Baptist Church in his neighborhood; he takes a lively interest in all church affairs, is a good, quiet citizen, has never been known to have a fuss with any one, pays his debts as promptly as any man, white or black; has all his land paid for, is practically out of debt. He says he never makes a debt unless he knows just where the money is to pay it with. This man has staid at home and attended to his own business, and has never tried to make a living out of politics.

It would be well for many, both white and black, to take pattern from Dave Tutt, and perhaps they would be better off in this world's good and perhaps in the world to come.

BANNIE'S PREFERENCE.

He Would Sooner Play the Maysvilles Than St. Louis.

[Cincinnati Enquirer.]

Pittsburg, September 13.—To-day Bancroft received a telegram from Von der Ahe in regard to his proposition to play off a postponed game in Cincinnati on the 19th. "Vondy" agreed to it. After Bancroft shifted two dates with Louisville, he received a message from the Brown's President stating they would not play in Cincinnati unless given a guarantee of $200, with a privilege of 50 per cent. of gate and grand stand receipts. Bancroft wired him: "Will not play you on terms named; have closed with a better club for that date, and expect to make a little money." Mr. Bancroft then explained that the "better club" referred to is the Maysville team, an amateur organization.

If a bicycle is known as a "bike,"
A tricycle must be a "trike,"
And when winter comes 'round
It will doubtless be found
That an icicle goes as an "ike."

The Public Schools.

The Jackson Hustler in commenting on various improvements that would be a benefit to our public schools system, among other things says:

"As a remedy for the trouble in selecting teachers, we suggest that the law should be so amended as to do away with second and third-class teachers, and only those who are able to obtain certificates of the first-class be allowed to teach in the schools of the Commonwealth. The act that we now have three classes of certificates is only to pauper to ignorance and the benefit of teachers. The educational welfare of the children of the State does not come into the contract at all. We pass over, indifferently, the idea that every child in the Commonwealth is entitled to the instruction of a first-class teacher, and in order to furnish places for illiterate and incompetent persons, who desire to teach, we compromise ourselves, the interests of the children, and the name of the Commonwealth, by issuing low grades of certificates."

The Modern Beauty

Thrives on good food and sunshine, with plenty of exercise in the open air. Her form glows with health and her face blooms with its beauty. If her system needs the cleansing action of a laxative remedy, she uses the gentle and pleasant liquid laxative Syrup of Figs.

Notice.

To Our Patrons: Owing to the low prices on photos we have decided on an entirely different rule in our gallery. Hereafter no photos will be made unless paid for in advance, when the negative is made. This means everybody. In the future, as in the past, satisfaction guaranteed.
KACKLEY & Cady, photographers.

A SPECIAL from Augusta says that a week or so ago Jess Boulender and his cousin, Miss Louella Boulender, living at Boudes Ferry, in Ohio, were secretly married at Brooksville. The girl told her mother a one day this week, and that lady thereupon fainted. The two sisters of the bride, it is said, grabbed butcher knives and started to the adjoining farm to have vengeance on their brother-in-law, but did not succeed. The only objection to the young man is that he is a cousin of the bride. The father of the girl came to Kentucky to examine the laws and found that the knot had been securely tied.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

MASON COUNTY FARM.

On Saturday, October 26th,

At 2 O'clock P. M.

We will offer for sale the farm of the late Chas. Bland, situated on the Sardis Pike, two miles East of Sardis and five miles West of Mayslick, containing about 180 acres. This farm is in a high state of cultivation, all under good fence and one of the best watered farms to be found anywhere. The improvements are all good, consisting of a large frame dwelling of nine rooms; cellar under part of the house; two Tobacco Barns, Stable, Cow House, Hoghouse, Chicken House, Ice House, Servants' House and other buildings. Well of water that never fails in yard. This is one of the best farms in the county. Any one wishing to look at the farm will be accommodated by calling on either J. E. J. L. or W. H. Bland on the premises.

Terms made known on day of sale.

BASE BALL TO-DAY.

The Bellevue Browns to Tackle the Maysvilles—Excursions to Cincinnati Thursday.

The Bellevue Browns come up to-day and will tackle the Maysvilles at the new park this afternoon. This will be the first game here for three or four weeks, and there should be a big crowd out to see the sport.

The Browns have defeated several of the leading amateur clubs of Cincinnati this season, among them the Gyms. The Gyms won the pennant in the O. K. League, and it takes a good team to down them. The Browns promise to make it interesting for the Maysvilles.

Go out this afternoon and encourage the boys and help them get in good trim for the game with the Reds at Cincinnati Thursday. Game called at 3 p. m.

DIAMOND DUST.

The games this afternoon and to-morrow afternoon may be the last played here this season. Don't miss them.

Eddie Hays, who has played with the Maysvilles on one or two occasions this season, will be here with the Browns.

Billy Wetterer, who was injured in the game between the Shamrocks and Maysvilles July 4, played his first game last week since the accident.

A big crowd ought to go down Thursday to "pull" for the Maysvilles in the game with the Reds. Special train over the C. and O. Only $1.25 round trip.

Grimes, who is one of the Queen City's promising young pitchers, will probably be in the box this afternoon for the Browns. He is the twirler who downed the Gyms, winners of the O. K. League pennant.

George Rieman was knocked out of the box in the game yesterday afternoon at League Park, Cincinnati, between the Manhattans and Shamrocks. George went in to pitch for the Shamrocks, but the Manhattans did what the Reds have never done, got on to his curves and put him out of the game. Rieman probably regrets now that he didn't finish the season with the Maysvilles. Bailey pitched for the Manhattans.

River News.

Captain T. J. Morgan, of Ironton, who has charge of the C. and O.'s ferries, has contracted with Captain T. M. Fletcher, of Levan, O., for a new ferry boat for Ripley. The boat is to be an exact counterpart of the one but recently put up for Ironton, and is to be completed in sixty days.

Some of Pittsburg's river men were figuring Saturday to ascertain just when there has been so long a time between coal shipments as this year. It was found that since 1864 there has been no such length of time between rises. In that year there was no rise from spring until in October; in 1887 there was no rise from June until December, and in 1893 there was no rise from June until November 30. The last coal taken out from Pittsburg for below this year was on April 19, when the Dick Fulton brought down a small tow, and got back with difficulty by stopping at several points until the few inches of a rise which have been characteristic of the river during all the summer enabled her to make another passage for a few miles.

Goods at Cost.

Having engaged in other business, can not give the jewelry business my attention, consequently we want to dispose of it as soon as possible. Beginning to-day, we place on sale at cost every diamond piece, all of our stock watches which is very large, silverware, clocks, banquet lamps, onyx top tables, silver spoons, in fact everything in our stock. No old stock, but fresh new goods. Nothing reserved. Beginning to-day, September 16th.

HOPPER & CO.

Cotton States and International Exposition, Atlanta, Ga.

For the above occasion the C. and O. will sell round trip tickets from Maysville to Atlanta at the following rates:

Ten day tickets on sale Tuesday and Thursday of each week, $11.40.

Twenty day tickets on sale daily, $15.70.

Tickets good returning up to January 7th, 1896, $21.40.

Tickets will be sold September 16th to December 15th.

Handsome Jewels.

Three very elegant jewels presented to Grand Master Thomas during the recent Knight Templar triennial convocation at Boston are on exhibition in the window at Ballenger's jewelry store. One is the Grand Master's jewel, and the others are gifts from the Grand Commandery of Kentucky and from Palestine Commandery of New York City.

A Good Investment.

You can not make a better investment than in diamonds, when bought right. Now my stock of diamonds is very large. To those that want a good safe investment, you can find a great chance at P. J. Murphy's, the jeweler.

MONITOR ranges, cook and heating stoves are the best. Special prices at W. F. Power's.

MR. AND MRS. W. B. MATTHEWS, Jr., are entertaining another fine son at their home in Los Angeles.

BOURBON County Republicans have nominated John Stuart for Representative in the next Legislature.

MR. JOHN T. CARNAHAN has been awarded the contract for frescoing the new opera house at Portsmouth.

FOR SALE—About 200,000 feet of lumber, consisting of fencing, paling and siding. Address, D. G. Wilson, Orangeburg.

C. A. DIETRICH and Miss Maud Irwin, of Lewis County, were married in this city last Saturday. The bride is "sweet sixteen."

Suits have been filed at Falmouth against ex-County Treasurer J. U. Riggle and his bondsmen for an alleged shortage of about $10,000.

No more flies falling dead around the room. "Stick 'em" fly paper catches all in the room and holds them. For sale at Chenoweth's drug store.

THE appearance of a handsome young Chicago girl, dressed in bloomers, on the street at Lexington, caused a commotion among the Bluegrass bloods.

It is authoritatively announced that Mr. J. M. Richardson, of Glasgow, will be a candidate for Speaker of the next House in the event of his election as Representative.

DR. J. C. ALLEN, of Cincinnati, and his brother, Judge Lucien B. Allen, of Bolivar, Mo., left Ripley when the war broke out and met in Cincinnati last week for the first time in thirty years.

CHARLES HASSON, the tonsorial artist, has opened a barber shop in rooms opposite Myall & Shackelford's. Everything neat and clean. Your patronage respectfully solicited. Satisfaction guaranteed.

HANDSOME watch chains, lovely rings and an elegant variety of the latest novelties in the jewelry line can always be found at Ballenger's. No cheap stuff, but the best made; and that's the only kind to buy.

SAMUEL L. ALLEN, twenty-six, a traveling salesman for a New York electrical concern, and a resident of New York, was married in Covington Friday to Mabel Marshall, of Lexington, who is just sweet sixteen.

MRS. JACOB WEYHING, of Uniontown, Ohio, gave a tramp a square meal and a pair of her husband's trousers. When her husband arrived home at night he informed her that in one of the pockets was a roll of bills of over $200.

At a special term of court, held at Richmond Friday for the purpose of considering the free turnpike problem, Judge Burnam refused to order an election on the petition filed, holding that there is nothing in the statutes of Kentucky warranting such action.

JESSE HUFFMAN, Bert Tolle and two other boys were walking along Short street Saturday night, when a sewer that connects with the cotton factory caved in, letting them down into some hot water from the factory. They were painfully scalded about the feet and legs.

THE excursion to Oligo-nunk advertised for last Saturday was not run. It seems there was some misunderstanding in regard to the rates for those who were to render "A Box of Monkeys" at the pavilion. Twenty-nine tickets were sold at this point and three at Augusta.

HEAVY trouble has come to B. M. Tucker, of Connorsville, Harrison County, recently. Fire destroyed his barn and outbuildings, then he was thrown from a wagon and had his ankle crushed, crippling him badly for life, and now he has been removed from the postmastership.

LEE SIMMONS SAD FATE.

Drowned Off the Steamer Telegraph Last Week—His Body Recovered Saturday Morning.

[Commercial Gazette.]

Word was received by Colonel Gus Simmons Saturday of the finding of the body of his son, Lee, in the Ohio River, near Carrollton, Ky. The young man had gone on the steamer Telegraph the first of the week to help out his uncle, who owns the bar on the boat. Wednesday night, after the boat left Carrollton, he was missed, and while his absence caused some uneasiness, no great alarm for his safety was felt. He was twenty-two years old, quiet and possessed no bad habits. As the days passed, and no word was received from him, Col. Simmons became uneasy, and the receipt of the telegram was a sad blow to him. The body was identified by papers found in his pockets.

The body was ordered cared for, and will be taken to Aberdeen, O., for burial. The officers of the Telegraph are unable to account for the young man's fate, but it is believed by all who knew him that his death was either by accident or that foul play has been committed.

A telegram Saturday about noon brought the sad news to his friends and relatives at Aberdeen. Deceased was the adopted son of Colonel and Mrs. Gus Simmons, of Aberdeen, and would have been twenty-two years old next December. The family are inclined to the belief that the drowning was accidental. Lee was a favorite among his acquaintances and in the community where he resided.

His remains were brought up on the 1:30 p. m. train yesterday afternoon and interred this morning in the Maysville Cemetery.

Colonel and Mrs. Simmons have the sympathy of the community in their sorrow.

GRAND CHEAP EXCURSION.

Go Down Next Thursday and See the Game Between the Maysvilles and the Reds.

The Maysvilles have made arrangements for a grand cheap excursion from this city to Cincinnati next Thursday to accommodate those who wish to see the game with the Reds at League Park that day.

A special train will be run by the C. and O. that day, leaving Maysville at 7:30 a. m., and running through to the Queen City without a stop. Returning it will leave Cincinnati at 7 p. m.

The fare has been fixed at the low rate of only $1.25 for the round trip, and a big crowd is anticipated. A coach will be reserved for the ladies.

The trip will be a pleasant one, and all the friends of the Maysville team should go down and cheer them on to another victory over the Reds.

LEE SMITH, aged eighty-five, owner of 1,000 acres of Bourbon County land, died at Paris Thursday afternoon. At the request of the deceased no funeral services were held over the remains. He leaves four grown children.

THE Grand Army Encampment unanimously adopted a resolution declaring that it not only found the latch-string on the outside at Louisville, "but the door and windows wide open, the table spread and loaded with good things and every pot full and boiling."

MRS. G. A. MCCARTHY has growing in her yard a calladium that is seven feet in height. Three of the largest leaves were measured. One is thirty-one inches wide and forty-three long; another thirty-two inches wide and forty-two long and the third is thirty by forty inches in size.

MR. THOMAS ROGERS, of Covington, died this morning at 6 o'clock at the home of Mr. James Brannen, near Lewisburg. He was in his fifty-first year, and was a member of the order of Catholic Knights at Covington. The remains will be shipped Tuesday morning to Covington for burial.

Is a fight about a woman on a junkboat at Pendleton, Cincinnati, Friday night, Ben Rick, the owner of the boat, was fatally stabbed. At the time of the bloody affray Rick was entertaining Kate Morton, William Morgan and Tom Armstrong, who is Morgan's cousin. The quartet had been "rushing the growler" all evening. Rick's home was at Green-up.

THE Fleming News says that "a little circumstance Republican papers carefully suppress, with reference to the Emancipation affair, is that the white Republicans raised a racket about having to sit with their colored brethren (each political party being allotted half the seating space, as in all former debates). This had the effect of nettling Billy Boo-hoo considerably."

Your Husband—

Is he not dear to you? Should you not be careful of his health? Maybe he is sometimes weak and run down from the effects of overwork, or worry, or carelessness. But you need not be alarmed; a tablespoonful of three times a day for a week or two will make him well and strong.

And this is how it does it: It purifies and enriches the blood and gently stimulates the action of the vital organs, and helps them perform their proper offices.

Don't neglect trifling ailments. Brown's Iron Bitters is pleasant to take, and it will not stain the teeth nor cause constipation. See the crossed red lines on the wrapper. Our book, "How to Live a Hundred Years," tells all about it, free for 2c. stamp.

FIFTY-FIVE DROWNED

China Steamer Goes Down in the Ocean.

BOUND FROM SYDNEY TO CHINA.

Eighty-One Belongs on Board and Only Twenty-Six Were Saved—Forty-One of the Drowned Were Chinese—Story of the Disaster as Told by One of the Survivors.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—A special to The Herald from Vancouver, B. C., says: The 2,000-ton China steamer Catterthun, bound from Sydney to China, with 81 human beings on board, is lying many fathoms deep off Seal Rock, near Port Stephens's lighthouse. Only 26 lives were saved. The terrible details of the disaster fill many pages of Australian papers.

The following are the names of the drowned: R. Frazor, R. Smith, Mrs. Mathias, Mrs. Loring, Miss Loring, Neal Shannon, Liverpool, master; W. P. Pinney, chief officer; Harold Leffler, third officer; R. H. Anderson, surgeon; J. N. Harper, Scotland, chief engineer; E. Wilson, second engineer; J. W. Adams, third engineer; A. Wolsendholm, fourth engineer; R. Manning, chief steward, and 41 Chinese.

The accident was due to currents drifting the steamer on the rocks in the fury and darkness of the storm. Mrs. and Miss Loring were the wife and daughter of the secretary of the Imperial Federation league of Australia, and were well known in San Francisco, having been on their way there via China.

At the coroner's inquest it was emphatically proved that the steamer was being steered all right, and that the only way to account for the vessel striking is that some mysterious current carried her on the rocks.

Following is an account of the disaster by a survivor, Dr. Copmann, which most accurately and briefly details the circumstances of the disaster.

"I was returning to England by way of China via Vancouver, B. C. I had a premonition that the vessel was going to be wrecked and took passage with another steamer, but a friend persuaded me to go by the Catterthun. At 2 o'clock on that morning I was shot out of the bunk by a terrible shock which was followed by a second one. I rushed on deck and found the steamer listed and rapidly settling. An officer told me we had struck a rock. There was no screaming. The skipper was as cool as possible and told the passengers not to get excited. In the meantime the steamer was being washed away in pieces.

"Captain Shannon gave orders to lower the boats and immediately afterward he was washed overboard and drowned. As the boats were lowered they were dashed to pieces or swept away. At last only the starboard boat was left. They were 18 people in it. It was torn from the vessel and washed away. I sprang into the sea and was picked up by a Chinaman. We rescued 12 more, the Chinaman working heroically.

"The last one we pulled in was a European. He dropped limp in the stern. I asked 'Who are you?' He said, 'It's Fawkes, old chap, thank God.' We tossed about, standing to all night with seas washing over us, and were picked up in the morning by a fishing boat."

The cargo of the steamer was very valuable. Among the cargo were 10,000 sovereigns.

BIG PROFITS Small Investments

Returning prosperity will make many rich, but nowhere can they make so much within a short time as by successful speculation in Grain, Provisions and Stock.

$10.00 Systematic Plan of Speculation

originated by us. All successful speculators operate on a regular system. It is a well-known fact that there are thousands of men in all parts of the United States who, by systematic trading through Chicago brokers, make large amounts every year, ranging from a few thousand dollars for the man who invests a hundred or two hundred dollars up to $50,000 to $100,000 or more by those who invest a few thousand.

It is also a fact that those who make the largest profits from comparatively small investments on this plan are persons who live away from Chicago and invest through brokers who thoroughly understand systematic trading.

Our plan does not risk the whole amount invested on any trade, but covers both sides, so that whether the market rises or falls it brings a steady profit that piles up enormously in a short time. WRITE FOR COVINCING PROOFS, also our Manual on successful speculation and our Daily Market Report, full of money-making pointers. ALL FREE. Our manual explains margin trading fully. Highest references in regard to our standing and success.
